Prelude

Welcome

Call to Worship

God's beloved in Jesus Christ, we gather in worship, remembering all that God has done for us.

Now the Son of Man has been glorified, and God has been glorified in him.

Remember the Passover of the Lord, which made time and history new for God's people.

Now the Son of Man has been glorified, and God has been glorified in him.

Remember Jesus' commandment to live a new way, loving one another as he has loved us.

Now the Son of Man has been glorified, and God has been glorified in him.

Remember the bread broken and given, the cup of new allegiance with God.

Now the Son of Man has been glorified, and God has been glorified in him.

God's beloved in Jesus Christ, God has given us everything! Come and worship.

We belong to Jesus. We are his own. Amen.

The Invitation

Prayer of Confession

Jesus, even as we enter the heartbreak and anguish of Holy Week, we know that we do not fully understand what God has done for us. You have loosed our bonds. What shall we return to you for all we have received? Sometimes we follow rituals but miss their meaning. Sometimes we say the words but forget to love. May God help us pay our vows in the presence of all God's people. Jesus, washing the feet of your friends, you ask: "Do you know what I have done for you?" May God help us to serve one another in love as you have served us. Jesus, breaking the bread and blessing the cup, you ask: "Do you know what I have done for you?" May God help us eat and drink in remembrance of you. Jesus, commanding us to love one another, you ask: "Do you know what I have done for you?" We love God, who hears our every supplication. We call on the name of the Lord.

Lord's Prayer

The Breaking of the Bread and Sharing of the Cup

The Prayer of Humble Access

We do not presume to come to this your table, O merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness, but in your abundant and great mercies. We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs from under your table; but you are the same Lord whose character is always to have mercy. Grant us, therefore, gracious Lord, so to eat the flesh of your dear Son Jesus Christ, and to drink his blood, that our sinful bodies may be made clean by his body, and our souls washed through his most precious blood, and that we may evermore dwell in him, and he in us, Amen.

Sharing of the Bread and Cup

Communion Hymn One Bread, One Body UMH 620

Prayer of Gratitude

Eternal God, we give you thanks for this holy mystery in which you have given yourself to us. Grant that we may go into the world in the strength of your Spirit, to give ourselves for others, in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
